

June, 2021

Dear Pelham Memorial High School Students and Parents/Guardians:

Reading is not only a medium for transmitting information but also a way to travel into worlds beyond our own, nurturing our imaginations, our minds, and our spirits. While reading, we can explore other cultures, new ideas, or unfamiliar people facing challenges similar to our own. We find these experiences in various genres of literature.

There are numerous resources for discovering titles, beginning with your classmates, your previous English teachers, the Sora App on your Launchpad, and the librarians at the Pelham Public Library.

We urge you to explore reading this summer together, as a family. Browsing titles at the Public Library, a local bookstore, or online is an opportunity to support good reading choices. Some titles may also be available as audiobooks and would make wonderful listening on long trips. Parents/Guardians may also want to read the books students select so you can talk about them together.

We ask that all PMHS students read at least THREE books of their choice over the summer. Each student should then complete the form on the back of this page including parent or guardian signatures. These forms will be collected during the first week of school in September.

- Incoming 11th grade AP English students should read one book from the 11AP Nonfiction List and one book from the 11AP Fiction List, along with one other book of their choice.
- Incoming 12th grade AP English students must read and annotate the three required books (How to Read Literature like a Professor, The Bean Trees, and The Glass Castle) as well as two other challenging books from the AP list for a total of five (read and annotated).
- Incoming SUPA Presentational Speaking students should read Imperium by Robert Harris and Talk Like Ted by Carmine Gallow, as well as one other book of their choice.
- Incoming Adelphi Dramatic Literature students should read Backwards and Forwards: A Technical Manual for Reading Plays by David Ball, Our Town by Thornton Wilder, and Long Day's Journey into Night by Eugene O'Neill.

We wish you many hours of enjoyable reading this summer!

Sincerely,

The Pelham Memorial High School English Department
